

Protecting Your Valuables

This is moving

BEKINS[®]

This is Full Value Protection.

Only you know the true value of your personal belongings – Bekins wants to make sure your household goods are protected no matter what. That’s why we offer For All It’s Worth™ Full Replacement Value Protection plans. In the rare instance that your household goods and personal belongings are damaged as part of a move, you’ll rest easy knowing you’re covered by a cost effective For All It’s Worth™ plan.

For All It’s Worth (FAIW) Protection Plans

With Bekins, you can decide how much your household goods are worth and select a transit protection plan that’s right for you. Our standard For All It’s Worth™ Full Replacement Value Protection Plan is automatically applied to your shipment (zero deductible option).

If your belongings have a higher value, you can choose another of Bekins’ For All It’s Worth™ Full Replacement Value Protection plans with flexible costs and deductible levels. Your Bekins agent will provide you with the details of each plan. FAIW is not an insurance policy. You should consult with your insurance company to see if your policy provides any insurance coverage for your household goods in-transit. If you decide not to choose an FAIW Full Replacement Value Protection plan, Bekins automatically applies a 60 cents per pound/per article policy to your shipment at no cost.

FAIW plans ensure your belongings are covered for repair, replacement or reimbursement against loss or damage for up to 100 percent of their current retail value – without depreciation. The maximum reimbursement is the shipment value you declare after sign-off on the Bill of Lading with your professional driver.

Included in FAIW coverage is “pairs and sets” protection. If one or more item(s) that are part of a matching pair or set is lost or damaged during the moving process, Bekins will replace or restore the pair or set to its original value or condition.

No one can tell you how much your personal belongings are worth. Bekins puts the power of Full Replacement Value Protection in your hands. It’s the only way to move.

The charge for replacement coverage on shipments transported to or from Alaska will be twice the rates shown above.

When a customer declares or releases their belongings to a valuation amount that falls between those amounts shown on the chart, the charge for the next highest valuation amount applies.

The charge for a maximum valuation exceeding $250,000 is the applicable charge for the first $250,000 declared, plus the additional rate shown above per $100 for the amount in excess of $250,000.

Note: Items of extraordinary value

Under the Full Replacement Value Protection option, your mover is also permitted to limit its liability for loss or damage to articles that have extraordinary value, unless you specifically list these articles on the “Inventory of Items Value in Excess of $100 Per Pound Per Article” form. An article of extraordinary value is any item whose value exceeds $100 per pound. Ask your Bekins agent for a complete explanation of this limitation of liability before you move. It is your responsibility to study these provisions carefully and to make the necessary declaration. (Not all movers use these special provisions for articles of extraordinary value.)
